PREAMBLE

This is a collective bargaining agreement between TUCKER HOUSE OPERATING LLC ("Employer" or "Company") and NATIONAL UNION OF HOSPITAL AND HEALTH CARE EMPLOYEES, AFSCME, AFL-CIO, AND ITS AFFILIATE DISTRICT 1199C ("Union") to establish terms and conditions of employment for the Employer's employees who are represented by the Union.

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION

1.1 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for all full and regular part-time service and maintenance employees, including CNAs, unit clerks, dietary, housekeeping, laundry and maintenance employees, excluding all other employees, management level employees, LGPN's, LPN's, professional employees, office clericals, guards and supervisors as defined in the NLRA.

1.2 A part-time employee shall be one who is regularly scheduled to work at least fifteen (15) hours per week or thirty (30) hours per pay period or actually works those hours for three (3) months. Part-time employees hired on or after the date of the Employer's takeover who are regularly scheduled to work twenty (20) hours or more per week or forty (40) hours per pay period will be benefit eligible. Incumbent Part time Employees will remain benefit eligible as outlined in this Agreement.

1.3 A temporary employee is defined as one who is hired for a period of up to three months and is so informed at the time of hire, or who is hired for a special project, or to replace an employee on leave or vacation. The three month period may be extended up to an additional three months or for the length of leave of the employee being replaced, provided that such employee shall become a member of the Union after the expiration of the initial three month period. Before using a temporary employee to replace a full-time employee who is on a leave of absence in excess of four (4) weeks, the Employer will post the temporary vacancy under Article 7. Only regular part-time employees shall be eligible to bid. If a part-time employee is selected to fill the temporary vacancy, the Employer may fill the temporary, part-time bargaining unit position as it sees fit.

1.4 All employees newly hired or rehired after termination of their seniority shall be considered probationary employees during the first 90 days of their employment. This Agreement shall not apply to a probationary employee. During and at the end of the probationary period, the Employer may discharge any such probationary employee at its sole discretion and such discharge shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. As an alternative to any such discharge at the end of the probationary period, the Employer with the agreement of the Union, may extend the probationary period of an employee for up to 30 additional calendar days. During the probationary period, the employee will not be entitled to any benefits under this Agreement. Upon completion of the probationary period, the employee will be placed on the seniority list as of his date of hire.

ARTICLE 2

UNION SECURITY

2.1 All employees on the active payroll as of the effective date of this agreement who are members of the Union shall maintain their membership in the Union in good standing as a condition of continued employment.

2.2 All non-probationary employees on the active payroll as of the effective date of this Agreement, who are not members of the Union, shall become members of the Union within 30 days after the effective date of this Agreement and shall thereafter maintain their membership in the Union in good standing as a condition of continued employment.

2.3 All employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement shall become members of the Union no later than the 90th day following the beginning of such employment and shall thereafter maintain their membership in the Union in good standing as a condition of continued employment.

2.4 For the purpose of this Article, an employee shall be considered a member of the Union in good standing if he or she tenders his/her initiation fee and periodic dues uniformly required as a condition of membership.

2.5 Subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure of this Agreement, an employee who has failed to maintain membership in good standing as required by this Article shall within 20 calendar days following receipt of a written demand from the Union requesting his or her discharge, be discharged if, during such period, the required dues and initiation fees have not been tendered.

2.6 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Company harmless from any claims or liabilities arising out of the Company's action for the purpose of complying with this Article.

2.7 At the time of hire, the Employer will provide written notice to the employee of its contractual relationship with the Union and the employee's obligations under Articles 2 and 3 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

CHECK-OFF

3.1 Upon receipt of a written authorization from an employee in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "A", the Employer shall, pursuant to such authorization, deduct from the wages due said employee each month, starting not earlier than the first pay period following the completion of the employee's probationary period, and remit to the Union regular monthly dues and initiation fees as fixed by the Union. The initiation fee shall be paid in two consecutive monthly installments beginning the month following completion of the probationary period. In the event the Union amends the initiation fee and/or dues schedule, the Employer agrees to make the revised deduction from the employee's pay upon 30 days' written notice from the Union.

3.2 Upon 30 days' written notice from the Union, the Employer agrees to remit said dues and initiation fees to the Philadelphia Office of the Union, as designated in said notice.

3.3 Employees who do not sign written authorization for deductions must adhere to the same payment procedure by making payments directly to the Union.

3.4 Any employee who is a member of and adheres to established and traditional tenets or teachings of a bona fide religion, body and sect which has historically held conscientious objections to joining or financially supporting labor organizations, and who demonstrates such membership and adherence to the Union and the Employer, shall not be required to join and remain a member of the Union as a condition of employment. Such employees shall be required, as a condition of continued employment, to remit monthly, to either the Lupus Foundation, the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation, or the American Cancer Society, recognized and valid charities under Section 501(c)(3) of Title 26 of the Internal Revenue code, a sum equal to the initiation fee and regular dues of the Union as provided for herein. Such sums shall be checked-off by the Employer from the employee's pay at the same time and in the same amount as initiation fees and dues are, and remitted by the Employer to the charity designated by the employee from the list above. Such designation shall be made in the form of a written authorization in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "B".

3.5 If any such employee who holds conscientious objections requests the Union to utilize the grievance/arbitration procedure, as provided for in this Agreement, on the employee's behalf, the Union is authorized to charge the employee the reasonable cost of using such procedure.

(a) Such costs shall include, but not be limited to, the expense of the Union Representative at all stages of the grievance procedure, the reasonable and customary fees of the arbitrator and arbitration fees and the fees of the Union's attorney.

(i) The employee shall not have the right, authority, or ability to designate, engage or otherwise hire his/her own attorney to prosecute his/her grievance if arbitration is determined to be appropriate by the Union. Only the Union shall have the authority to determine whether a grievance on behalf of such employee shall be taken to arbitration.

(b) If fees are due and owing to the Union under this provision, such fees, if not paid when billed, shall be deducted from the employee's pay in accordance with Exhibit "B", attached hereto, remitted to the Union on a monthly basis, and shall be completely paid in a period of 12 months from the month of billing.

(c) Any disputes arising between the Union and the employee concerning the reasonableness of the costs assessed by the Union shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure of this Agreement.

3.6 The Employer shall be relieved from making such "check-off" deductions upon (a) termination of employment, or (b) transfer to a job other than one covered by the bargaining agreement, or (c) layoff from work, or (d) agreed leave of absence, or (e) revocation of the "check-off" authorization in accordance with its terms or with applicable law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the return of an employee to work from any of the foregoing enumerated absences, the Employer will immediately resume the obligation of making said deductions, except that deductions for terminated employees shall be governed by Sections 3.1, 3.4 and 3.5 hereof. These provisions, however, shall not relieve any employees of the obligations to make the required dues and initiation fee payments pursuant to the Union constitution in order to remain in good standing, except as provided in Sections 3.4 and 3.5.

3.7 The Employer shall not be obliged to make dues deductions or charitable deductions of any kind from any employee who, during any dues month, shall have failed to have received sufficient wages to equal the dues or charitable deductions.

3.8 Each month the Employer shall remit to the Union all deductions for dues and initiation fees or deductions for the grievance and arbitration procedure in accordance with Section 6 hereof, made from the wages of employees for the preceding month, and forward said payment to the Union on or before the 15th day of each month, together with a list of all employees, and their social security numbers, from whom dues and/or initiation fees and/or grievance and arbitration fees have been deducted. In addition, each month the Employer shall forward to the Union a list of all employees from whom charitable contributions have been deducted in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 thereof, together with the amount deducted for each employee.

3.9 The Employer agrees to furnish the Union each month with the names of newly hired employees, their addresses, social security numbers, classifications of work, dates of hire, and names of terminated employees, together with their dates of termination, and the names of employees on leave of absence.

3.10 Upon receipt of written authorization from an employee in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "C", the Employer shall, pursuant to such authorization, deduct from the wages due said employee each pay period, starting not earlier than the first period following the completions of the employee's probationary period, the sum specified in said authorization and remit same to the District 1199C Credit Union or a credit union designated by the Union to the credit or account of said employee. It is understood that such "check-off" remittance shall be made by the Employer whenever feasible.

3.11 The Employer agrees to make a payroll deduction once each calendar year from an employee's pay for the District 1199C Political Action Fund. Said authorization shall be in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "D". This deduction shall be made only once per year for those employees in the bargaining unit authorizing the deduction. The Employer shall remit the lump sum of all deductions to District 1199C by separate check.

3.12 It is specifically agreed that the Employer assumes no obligation, financial or otherwise, arising out of this implementation of the provision of this Article, and the Union hereby agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from any claims, actions or proceedings by an employee arising from deductions made by the Employer hereunder. Once the funds are remitted to the Union, or to the charity of the employee's designated choice, as the case may be, their disposition thereafter shall be the sole and exclusive obligation and responsibility of the Union or the charity, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 4

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

4.1 All management functions and responsibilities which the Employer has not expressly modified or restricted by a specific provision of this Agreement are retained and vested exclusively in the Employer. More specifically the Employer reserves the right to establish and administer policies and procedures related to resident care, research, education, training, operations, services and maintenance its facilities; to reprimand, suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline employees for just cause; to hire, promote, transfer, layoff and recall employees to work; to determine the number of employees and the duties to be performed; to maintain the efficiency of employees; to establish, expand, reduce, alter, combine, consolidate or abolish any job classification, department, operation or service; to determine staffing patterns and areas worked; to schedule work, work hours, days, shifts or weeks; to control and regulate the use of facilities, supplies, equipment and other property of its facilities; to determine the number, location and operation of divisions, department and all other units of the Employer; to determine the assignment of work, the qualifications required and the size and composition of the work force; to make or change Employer rules, regulations, policies and practices not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement; and otherwise generally to manage its facilities, attain and maintain full operating efficiency and optimum resident care and to direct the work force, except as expressly modified or restricted by a specific provision of this Agreement.

Consequently, the Union agrees to cooperate with the Employer to attain and maintain full efficiency and optimal resident care. The Employer agrees to receive and consider constructive suggestions submitted by the Union toward these objectives.

If subcontracting results in the layoff of bargaining unit personnel, the Employer shall notify the Union in writing of the layoff and, if requested by the Union, the Employer shall meet at a mutually convenient time and place with representatives of the Union to discuss the layoff and to try to protect the job security of the bargaining unit personnel scheduled to be laid off.

ARTICLE 5

NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

5.1 No employee shall engage in any strike, sympathy strike, sit-down, sit-in, cessation or stoppage or interruption of work, boycott, or other interference with the operations of the Employer.

5.2 The Union, its officers, agents, representatives, and members, shall not in any way, directly or indirectly, authorize, assist, encourage, participate in, or sanction any strike, sympathy strike, sit-down, sit-in, slow-down, cessation, or stoppage or interruption of work, boycott, or other interference with the operations of the Employer or ratify, condone or lend support to any such conduct or action.

5.3 In addition to any other liability, remedy, or right provided by applicable law or statute, should a strike, sympathy strike sit-down, sit-in, slow-down, cessation, or stoppage or interruption to work, boycott, or other interference with the operations of the Employer occur, the Union, within 24 hours of a request by the Employer shall:

(b) Classification seniority is defined as the length of time an employee has worked continuously in a specific job classification within a department.

(c) Department seniority is defined as the length of time an employee has worked continuously in a specific department

6.2 (a) An employee's home seniority shall commence after the completion of his/her probationary period and shall be retroactive to the date of his/her last hire.

(b) Classification seniority shall accrue during the time period an employee works in a specific job classification.

(c) Department seniority shall accrue during the time an employee works continuously in a specific department.

(d) Leaves of absence. Seniority shall accrue during any continuously authorized leave of absence without pay up to twelve (12) months; during an authorized leave of absence with pay; or during a period of continuous layoff not to exceed the lesser of twelve (12) months or the length of an employee's employment, if the employee is recalled into employment.

(e) Classification seniority shall apply in layoffs and recalls and for the scheduling of vacations.

(f) Home seniority shall apply in the computation and determination of eligibility for all benefits where length of service is a factor pursuant to this Agreement.

6.3 An employee's seniority shall be lost when he/she:

(a) Terminates employment voluntarily;

(b) Is discharged for just cause;

(c) Is laid off for a period of one year or a period exceeding the length of the employee's continuous service, whichever is less;

(d) Fails to return from an authorized leave of absence at the specified time;

(e) Fails to return from layoff within seven days after the documented delivery of a certified letter from the Employer offering reinstatement. A copy of the letter will be sent to the local Union. The Employer may at its discretion grant an extension, provided it notifies the Union of such extension.

(f) Employees who, while on a leave of absence from the Employer, take another job during their normal nursing home working hours, without written consent of the Administrator; and

ARTICLE 7

PROMOTIONS

7.1 When a vacancy in the bargaining unit exists which the Employer decides to fill, the following procedures shall be used in filling such vacancies:

(a) The Employer agrees to post a notice of such job vacancies for five days and to consider the qualifications of all applicants for such vacancies. The position shall be awarded to the employee whom the Employer considers most qualified for the position who has the ability to perform the work. In the event of qualifications of two employees are relatively equal, home seniority shall prevail. If the Employer concludes that no employee is qualified, then it may hire from outside the unit. If an employee is selected for the vacant job, that employee shall have a 30 day trial period. The Employer may extend an employee's trial period for a vacant job by an additional thirty (30) days. If, in the opinion of the Employer the employee does not successfully complete the trial period, or if the employee does not wish to continue in the job, that employee shall be returned to his or her former classification within the trial period without loss of classification seniority unless he loses his seniority under other provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8

LAYOFF AND RECALL

8.1 In the event a layoff becomes necessary within a job classification, the layoff will occur in the following order:

- (a) temporary employees.
- (b) part time employees not covered by the collective bargaining agreement.
- (c) probationary employees.
- (d) non-probationary employees on the basis of their bargaining unit seniority.

8.2 In the event an employee is scheduled to be laid off in one department and there exists a vacant job in another department, or a job filled by a probationary employee, temporary employee or part-time employee not covered by this Agreement, for which the employee is qualified and has the ability to perform, as determined in the sole discretion of the Employer, then home seniority shall prevail in assigning such qualified employees scheduled to be laid off to such jobs.

8.3 Employees who are on layoff shall be recalled to available jobs in their classification in accordance with their classification seniority in the reverse order from which they were laid off. If a vacancy occurs in a job classification where no employee in that classification has recall rights, then the laid off employee with the most home seniority will be recalled if he or she has the ability and qualifications to do the work, and if not, the next senior qualified employee will be recalled and so on. When an employee is recalled to a job other than his regular job and to which he is qualified to perform, he shall receive the rate for the job which he is performing.

8.4 Probationary employees who have been laid off have no recall privileges.

8.5 It is agreed in principle that for the purpose of applying seniority to recalls, to vacant positions, and to layoff, employees in job classifications of similar types and requiring similar skills shall be grouped together.

10.2 The Employer will notify the Union in writing of any discharge or suspension within 48 hours from the time of discharge or suspension. If the Union desires to contest the discharge or suspension, it shall give written notice to the Employer within 5 working days, but not later than 10 working days from the date of receipt of the notice of discharge or suspension. In the event the Union contests the discharge or suspension, the dispute shall be submitted and determined under the grievance and arbitration procedure beginning at Step 3. The Union's notice of contest shall not delay implementation of the suspension or discharge.

10.3 The Employer shall not discipline an employee in such a manner as to embarrass the employee before the public or other employees except in the case where the welfare of a resident would be affected. The Employer shall honor an employee's request to have a delegate or other employee present when formal discipline (written warning or above) is issued.

ARTICLE 11

employer's nursing home administrator or representative designated by management, or his/her designee, and he/she or his/her designee shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) working days after the presentation of the grievance in this step.

11.2 Failure on the part of the Employer to answer a grievance at any step shall not be deemed acquiescence thereto, and the Union may proceed to the next step.

11.3 Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, a grievance concerning discharge or suspension may be presented initially at Step 3 in the first instance, within the time limits specified above.

11.4 All time limits herein specified shall be deemed to be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

11.5 A grievance which affects a substantial number or class of employees, and which the employer representative designated in Steps 1 and 2 lacks authority to settle, may initially be presented at Step 3 by the Union representative.

ARTICLE 12

ARBITRATION

12.1 Any unresolved grievance concerning the interpretation, application or alleged breach of any specific provision of this Agreement may be referred by the Union to arbitration before the American Arbitration Association for resolution under the voluntary labor association rules then in effect by serving written notice upon the Employer within 30 calendar days after the completion of Step 3 of the grievance procedure. If the Union fails to serve such notice of its intent to arbitrate within this time limitation, the grievance shall be considered resolved. No individual employee shall have the right to invoke this arbitration procedure.

12.2 The fees and expenses of the American Arbitration Association and the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties.

12.3 The award of an arbitrator hereunder shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employee.

12.4 The arbitrator shall have jurisdiction only over a grievance after the completion of the grievance procedure and he or she shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify in any way any of the terms of this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall draw no adverse inference if a resident or family member fails to testify at an arbitration hearing.

12.5 Arbitration awards or grievance settlements shall in no case be made retroactive more than five days prior to the date on which the grievance was presented in Step 1 of the grievance procedure.

12.6 The parties agree that discharge cases may be handled on an expedited basis in accordance with the following rules:

(a) Within 7 calendar days after receipt of the Employer's Step 3 grievance procedure answer, the Union may request expedited arbitration in a discharge case only by using the following procedure:

(i) The Union shall initially notify the facility administrator and/or Network Human Resources Coordinator by fax or regular mail that it desires to proceed to arbitration on a particular case. Within 48 hours of the notification, the party shall agree on 3 possible hearing dates within 45 calendar days of the Union's notice.

(ii) The Union shall then notify in writing the Philadelphia office of the American Arbitration Association, which shall submit to the parties a list of arbitrators who are available to hear the case on one of the agreed upon dates. The parties shall mutually agree to the arbitrator.

(b) The arbitrator chosen shall issue a written opinion within 30 days of the close of the hearing.

The Employer will not unreasonably withhold permission from the Union representative to accomplish the purpose of his or her visit. Union Representatives shall meet with employees in one location designated by the Employer and in non-resident care related areas during non-work hours.

14.2 (a) The Union will notify the employer in writing of the identity of the Union's delegates. The delegates may leave their jobs during working hours for the purpose of reviewing matters arising out of this Agreement involving the department or section they represent and which require immediate attention, or to attend a scheduled grievance meeting, provided that they first receive permission to perform this Union business from their immediate supervisor (if the immediate supervisor is a Union member, then permission must be obtained from the department manager). Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld, but shall not be granted in times when it interferes with resident care or the efficient operation of the employer.

(b) If the delegate finds it necessary to enter a department of the nursing home other than his or her own department, he or she shall first secure the permission of his or her own department head. When he arrives in the other department, he will also secure the permission of that department head. Such visit shall not interfere with the operation of the nursing home.

17.3 An employee who works on a recognized holiday shall be paid time and one-half (1 ½) his regular hourly rate for all hours worked. In addition, the employee shall receive an additional day's pay or another day off, as determined by the Employer after consulting with the employee, provided the employee worked his scheduled work day before the holiday and his scheduled work day after the holiday. Employees who work on a holiday shall not receive holiday pay if the employee is more than an hour late and does not provide notice, or if the employee leaves more than 15 minutes early without notice. If an employee is more than thirty minutes late on the day before or after the holiday, their holiday pay shall be reduced by the amount of time they are late.

18.4 Unused, accrued PTO will be paid at 50% to employees who are laid off.

18.5 By January 3rd of each year, the Employer shall post a schedule showing the number of PTO slots in each department and shift throughout the following twelve (12) consecutive months. PTO may be scheduled for any time during the year. If an employee has requested PTO on 3 separate occasions and has been denied, the Employer will pay out that time at 100%.

Each employee shall submit a signed, written PTO preference request to his/her department head or that department head's designee by January 31 of each year, listing three (3) preferences for all PTO time available to that employee. Such requests shall be for increments of not less than five (5) days.

PTO will be approved in accordance with the Employer's need to maintain efficient operations. PTO shall then be granted according to the employee's bargaining unit seniority within their respective departments. The Employer shall give each employee written notice of his/her approved PTO schedule by March 31 of each year. The employee shall sign a receipt acknowledging receipt of this notice of his/her approved PTO schedule.

PTO requests submitted after March 31 will be granted on a "first come, first serve" basis subject to the remaining availability of slots on the PTO schedule. Such requests may be for single or multiple days. Such requests must be submitted in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the posting of the work schedule covering the desired PTO period and shall be subject to the written approval of the Employer. The department head or the department head's designee shall sign and date the employee's written request for PTO and return a copy of the approved or denied request to the employee within two weeks of submission. Requests for PTO shall be submitted in writing to the employee's respective department head no later than two (2) weeks in advance of the time the leave is requested. In emergencies, notification must be provided two (2) hours prior to the commencement of the day shift, and three hours prior to the commencement of the afternoon and evening shifts.

A request for PTO shall not be unreasonably denied.

18.6 PTO pay shall be based on the employee's rate of pay in effect at the time the PTO is taken. Requests to receive PTO pay in advance must be submitted to the employee's immediate supervisor two (2) weeks in advance of the PTO time.

18.7 Employees are requested to give two (2) calendar weeks' notice of their resignation. Employees must work all scheduled days during the notice period. PTO days cannot be taken during the notice period.

Unused, accrued PTO for the calendar year will be paid to those employees who work all scheduled days during their two-week notice period.

Unused, accrued PTO will not be paid upon resignation for those employees who fail to provide the required two-week notice or who fail to work all scheduled days during the two-week notice period. Unused, accrued Paid Time Off benefits will not be payable to employees who are terminated for just cause.

The terms and conditions of any extension shall be handled on a case by case basis between the Employer and the Union.
